WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES ET RECHERCHES FÉMINISTES

FINAL CONGRESS PROGRAM

University of British Columbia
June 1st-4th 2019

Land acknowledgement

We would like to acknowledge that we are gathered today on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of the x^wməθk^wəy^əm (Musqueam) people. We give thanks to the host Indigenous communities, as we bear the collective responsibility to honour and respect their protocols and homes, and to meaningfully engage with their knowledges in this Congress and beyond.

Lunchtime Panel

Transnational Feminisms in a Divided Age: A Meridians Panel on Publishing, Community, Activism and Art

This panel will address the relationship between transnational feminist research as an interdisciplinary scholarly field and as part of communities, institutions, and activist bodies working across borders. The panelists are scholars whose work has resonance within or in relation to Canada; each has also been featured in some capacity by the journal Meridians: feminism, race, transnationalism. Current editor Ginetta Candelario will share perspectives on the history of the journal as forum for transnational women of color feminist scholarship and creative work, as well as advice to prospective contributors.

Ghaida Moussa, PhD student Social and Political Thought, York University

Syrus Marcus Ware PhD student Environmental Studies, York University

Ghaida Moussa is a doctoral candidate in the Social and Political Thought program at York University, where she interrogates how gendered, racial, and neoliberal regimes of knowledge inform our understanding of chronic unidentified illness. She was awarded the 2010 Lambda Foundation for Excellence Award for her master's work on queer Palestinian resistance to oppressive national, colonial, and neocolonial narratives at the University of Ottawa. Her poems "Ghourbeh" and "Tazakar" have appeared in Sinister Wisdom. She is, with Ghadeer Malek, the co-editor of Min Fami: Arab Feminist Reflections on Identity, Space, and Resistance (Inanna Publications). Along with Shaista Patel and Nishant Upadhyay, she is also co-editor of the recent Feral Feminisms special issue "Complicities, Connections, and Struggles: Critical Transnational Feminist Analysis of Settler Colonialism."
